Graded and High School Opening.

Spacious Auditorium Was Filled With Anxious Parents and Pupils Monday Morning

Words of Encouragement

Marion Graded School opened today, Sept. 17th, and the same day that has predominated for several years past was manifested on Monday. Every seat of the spacious Auditorium was filled with anxious children and parents. The devotional exercises were conducted by the Superintendent, Victor Kee, after which the national anthem, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," sung by all present. As usual the cries rang forth from the high school boys for speeches from some of the leading persons of the town who always lend their help and hand to all interests of the school. A great number expressed their opinion on the same line, leading to a great thought that it is a school where alone that makes a school more desirable, but the associations, friendships and experiences in the school community are also important factors. Among those who were called on by words of encouragement besides the faculty were Revs. Butler, Andrews and Elgin, Judge Blackburn, E. Weldon, Zed Bonetti, J. W. Lee, H. A. Haynes, R. E. Flannery, H. Cochran, Dr. Stilwell and Herman Haynes.

The morning exercises were heartily enjoyed by all and the great desire of the citizens of Marion is that Marion Graded School will in the future as it has in the past send out to the world enthusiastic, practical, noble students to strive as the good old song has it, "For God, our Country, and M. G. S."

Died in the Far West.

Pathetic was the death of Mrs. Frances Chilton in Adna, Wash., Sept. 15th. Thirty-two years ago she and her husband left Kentucky for a west and from that good day until six days before her death she had seen any of her relatives since leaving home from Kentucky. Her mother, father, leased Stone and wife, all died also a sister, Mrs. Mary, has crossed the dark river. Another, Valch Stone, left here to visit her, arriving there Sept. 14th, and he was the only one of her relatives who ever saw from Kentucky after leaving this state in 1874. W. J. Stone, of Kottawa, her brother, and Mrs. Temple, daughter of New Bedford, vicinity Lyon county, is the only sister, she being eighty-two years old. It seems a cruel dispensation of Providence that she should be spared all these years to visit from her brother only a few days before being called home.

Morris-Bu

Dr. R. J. Morris, of Louisville, was married Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 17th, to Mrs. Burke, of Marion. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the Catholic priest, and the happy couple left for Marion on a bridal tour. Dr. Morris has lived here and has a number of friends who will wish him much success in his married life. The bride is not known, but is said to be a beautiful woman. She has been a widow only a few years, and Dr. Morris was married on her first marriage.

A Distinguished Honor.

Mr. A. H. Cardin, of Vicksburg, received his commission from J. C. W. Beckham, appointing him a delegate from the state of Kentucky to the Farmers National Convention, which convenes at Rock Island, October 9th. Mr. Cardin appreciates the compliment and expects to attend.

NOT GUILTY IS THE VERDICT

H. H. Loving Acquitted of the Murder of H. A. Rose Long Jury Session.

JURY OUT FIFTY-ONE HOURS

H. H. Loving is not guilty. That was the verdict of the jury of twelve good men and true at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon.

Ever since noon on Saturday these men have been considering the evidence submitted and deliberating on the case. During that period they have had no intercourse with the outside world, and their deliberations have been secret.

The first vote, it is said, by one of the jurymen stood 9 for acquittal, one for manslaughter and two blanks, were simply undecided. No material change in this vote was recorded until this afternoon, when the three men came over in a bunch, the entire twelve voting for acquittal.

Twice during their deliberations the jurymen tried to report a disagreement, but the court would not hear them, and both times they were sent back to their room.

The first of these times, it is said, was Saturday afternoon, and the second this morning at 8:30 o'clock when court opened.

Judge Reed had nothing to say to the jurymen except that a hasty disagreement would not be considered by the court, and back they went, to finally reach an unanimous decision.

The defendant was in the courtroom when the jury came in, and although he has shown very little mental perturbation during the trial, the look that came over his face when the words "not guilty" were spoken, gave eloquent testimony of the relief he felt. He was soon the center of a group of friends, and as soon as he could get away from them, he hastened to express his thanks to the jury and to his attorneys.

This was the second trial of the Loving case, the first one resulting in a verdict and a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. This judgment was afterward reversed on error by the court of appeals, and the case was sent back for trial.

The defendant was charged with the murder of H. A. Rose, whom he shot in his own (Loving's) office in the Fraternity building more than one year ago.

Mr. Loving acknowledged the shooting, and put up a plea of self defense, declaring that Rose had made threats against him, and had come to his office to attack him at the time of the killing.—Pineah News-Democrat, Monday September 17.

A Knotty Question.

J. E. Chittenden, formerly editor of the Crittenden Record, at Marion, and now Hopkinsville inspector for the Kentucky Board of Fire Underwriters, has been notified by a friend that his acquittal on the charge of contempt of court before the county judge of Livingston county has been ignored by Judge Gordon, of the Madisonville circuit court, so that summons would be issued requiring him to appear before the December term of court for trial.—Hopkinsville New Era.

DYCSBURG.

Mr. Cullen Turley aged about sixty years died at his home near Dycusburg September 11. Mr. Turley has long been a leading citizen of this community. He leaves a wife and five children. One son of his first marriage is a citizen of Kuttawa. His last wife was Miss May Bell, and she with her small children have the sympathy of many friends.

Mr. Al Driver, of Caldwell Springs died September 10th, and was interred at Caldwell Springs cemetery. During a hard storm of rain, hail and wind two funerals were in progress at Caldwell Springs, at the same hour on the 12th inst., that of Mr. Turley and Mr. Driver.

Sunday 10th, the new Methodist church at Dycusburg was dedicated. Rev. Elgin preaching the dedicatory sermon. The day was ideal and there was a fair attendance. After noon by the choir with Mrs. Phillips, organist, the pastor Rev. Elgin Johnson, read the opening lesson, "I am the Bread of Life." Rev. Elgin delivered a fine sermon from Gal. 2:16. Unfortunately the sermon was interrupted by the alarm of no more than the congregation, but the choir continued after the fire in the roof of the suburban residence of Mr. W. W. Jones, it was extinguished. Mr. John P. Gregory, Dycusburg's efficient fire chief, acted as leader for the choir. After services, an ample dinner was served on a lovely lawn adjacent to the church. The evening services were held at Rev. Johnson's, who preached his last sermon at his own residence, at this point. The people certainly appreciate his labors, and assisting in the service of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen, of Salem, attended the dedication Sunday, and was the guest of Mrs. F. B. Dycus.

Mr. Wm. Toner and daughter, Mrs. Harris, of Tyners Chapel, were at church here Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Guess, of Salem, attended the dedication, and was the guest of G. W. Steele.

Miss Minnie Casidy and Mr. John Bradshaw, of Edlyville, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Rosa and Fred Smith, of Clay, have been the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Wells, and of their grandfather, the venerable Wm. Smith, of Livingston.

Miss Maude Baldwin and Mr. Homer Lyon, of Glenn Chapel, attended services here Sunday.

Mrs. Robt. Johnson and children, of Livingston county, were at the dedication Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Cooksey.

Mrs. Jas. Duval continues dangerously ill.

Mrs. Jennie Vaster is in Paducah.

The Messrs. Daughtrey and Guy Richards are off on an overland trip to Missouri.

The little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rad McKinney, fell and broke his arm last week.

SALEM.

Friday Sept. 7th, at 1:30 o'clock the news reached Salem that Mr. Joe Hayes near town was dead. He has been very ill for several months. He was certainly a fine man and loved by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and several children to survive him. He was buried at Tyners chapel Saturday September 8th.

Master Fred Hayden has been very ill for the past week. We are glad to say that he is improving.

Postmaster Sam Harpending was in Evansville on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McChesney, of Paducah, were shaking hands with their many friends here Friday and Saturday.

Miss Allie Cox, of Carversville, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Fleming.

Rev. Roe filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Jake Farris, Jr., left Monday for Hopkinsville where he will enter school.

Miss Sadie Grassham is visiting in Unional.

Boys-To the wife of Richard Pierce September 9th a fine boy.

We hope we will succeed in getting our streets worked and sidewalks repaired as they are much in need of it.

As we are about to make room for our fall goods you will find our summer goods too cheap to mention. Call and see for yourself.

CAVE-IN-ROCK, ILL.

The Cave-in-Rock boys met the Marine Corps at Newburgh last Saturday and played baseball. The Cave-in-Rock boys beat the Marine Corps 10 to 0 and these boys will be the champions of the world.

Alley Pines came from Paducah and will be in the city for some time.

Mr. Mason's trip to the city for business has been successful.

Ordin. Harty and Dick A. Voss, boys living near Newburgh, are suffering from a broken arm.

There is talk of preparing the ruins of the Cave-in-Rock for a National Monument near Newburgh.

We noticed that Farris on our streets last week.

Never within the memory of man was such a corn crop as we now have known to wave over the hills of Hardin.

Ernest Paris will leave September 21st, for St. Louis, to attend Pharmaceutical college.

H. H. Pelhank and wife attended the Big Saline Baptist Association which met at Herd Springs first Sunday in September. They report a great meeting.

CHAPEL HILL

This community is still moving along very nicely, some sickness in this section.

A large number of Chapel Hill people attended the campmeeting at Piney Fork Sunday.

Chapel Hill people are very busy housing their tobacco, and I will say they have some very fine tobacco.

Ben Allen, of Oak Grove neighborhood, was in this vicinity last week.

The corn crop in this precinct is large and well matured and the boys are looking forward for a fat crib.

Sunday was Rev. Thompson's regular meeting day at Chapel Hill and a small congregation was on hand on account of the campmeeting at Piney Fork.

Our fall meeting at Chapel Hill begins on Wednesday night before the third Sunday in October, and will continue ten days.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday night, until the fall meeting begins.

We have Sunday school at this place every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock promptly.

Mr. Will Adams and Henry Thompson were very unfortunate to lose a very fine barn of tobacco last Friday night by fire.

Mr. James A. Hill is putting up some very fine pea lay this last week.

I am glad to note that our jolly old friend Jessie Olive has moved back to Marion. Jessie is a good Democrat don't you forget it.

STARR.

Last Week's Letter

There has been a crew of government surveyors working in this part of the county for some time.

Plenty of corn makes cheap hog but as swine are scarce this year may be an exception.

There has been a number of preachers in attendance at the camp meeting.
